

The Power of Art in Interfaith Peacebuilding

An Illustrated Presentation

"I think I am attempting to dig away at - without wanting to sound too pompous - the great mystery
of being."

-Anish Kapoor
award winning contemporary British-Indian sculptor

“ Art has the ability to unite people into a collective mind.
That’s the real magic,
what those in the hate business can’t countenance...
[Artists] have a duty to vanish the idea that there’s an “us” and a “them.” ”

~David Copperfield, world renowned illusionist

"For isn't that the joy of art - its ability to speak to us all about what is both familiar and unfamiliar? To be a language that transcends borders and barriers. To be the consummate diplomat, traveling the world overcoming race, religion and rancor, building bridges of respect and understanding between us all, North, South, East and West."
